

Parker Muzzerall

parker.muzzerall@ubc.ca

Education

Masters of Arts | University of British Columbia | Vancouver |

2020-present

Department of Sociology, Graduate Scholarship ($10,000)

Research agenda critically examines the cultural, political, and geographic processes that shape social responses to climate change

Bachelor of Arts Honours | Dalhousie University | Halifax |

2013-2017

First class honours degree in sociology with a minor in political science

Other study areas of focus included environmental studies, Indigenous studies, social statistics, and gender and women's studies

---

Awards

Canadian Sociology Association Graduating Student Award | 2017

Awarded to top graduating students across Canada for outstanding achievement in sociology

Rev S. H. Prince Prize in Sociology | 2017

Awarded to the top student in sociology at Dalhousie University for significant academic achievement and community impact

---

Work

Teaching Assistant | University of British Columbia | 2020-

SOCI 102: Inequality and Social Change

Swim Guide Program Coordinator | Swim Drink Fish | 2018-2019

Lead and facilitated citizen science water quality monitoring workshops using the IDEXX method for bacterial water quality analysis

Swim Guide Program Assistant | Swim Drink Fish | 2017-2018

Received, organized, and managed water quality data for over 8000 recreational water monitoring locations in the Swim Guide app and website

Provided technical and program support to the Swim Guide Affiliate network of over 90 environmental organizations across 10 countries

Work

Research and Outreach Assistant | Mi'kmaw Conservation Group | 2016

Worked with a team of biologists to conduct over 30 Atlantic Salmon habitat assessments used to inform conservation policy

Collaborated with a team to develop and implement environmental-based workshops for 75 children in 6 different Indigenous communities across Nova Scotia

First Year Interest Group Leader | Dalhousie University | 2016-2017

Facilitated weekly workshops on university life and success for 12 students

Lead discussion groups on current topics in sociology and political science

Volunteer

---

President | Dalhousie Sociology and Social Anthropology Society | 2016-2017

Managed a budget of $3,000 and a team of 8 executives while liaising with 30 faculty members

Pioneered new social and academic student programming including a peer mentorship program, monthly coffeehouses and bi-annual community nights for a department of over 300 students

Organizer | 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Based Violence | 2015

Engaged stakeholders including students, faculty, and administration to implement a series of public and academic events aimed at increasing awareness around gender based violence

References

---

Dr. Howard Ramos

Professor of Sociology, Dalhousie University
howard.ramos@dal.ca
902-494-3130 or 902-494-6595

Dr. Martha Radice

Professor of Social Anthropology, Dalhousie University martha.radice@dal.ca
902-494-6747

Dr. Diana Lewis

Professor of Geography, The University of Western Ontario
diana.lewis@uwo.ca
519-661-2111, x. 85103